Dear People of Grace,

As I wrote this salutation to you, I thought to myself that being called "People of Grace" is reason enough to belong to this parish! For that is who we want to be, isn't it? We want to be people through whom the grace of God flows. We talk about the grace of God as if we know what that means. We know that it means something really good that comes from God. You may have heard me say before that "grace" is a churchy word for "gift" or "gifts."

The grace of God reminds us that our relationship with God is all about receiving gifts from God. Everything is a gift. We receive gifts such as God's mercy and loving kindness. In the Old Testament, we are reminded of God's "steadfast love," which is another gift. Even our faith is a gift given to us by God.

What is wonderful about the grace of God is that it reminds us that everything in our life of faith is a response to God's initiative. Because we are God's children, made in God's image and likeness, God cares for us and provides for us like a loving parent. Jesus taught us to pray, "Our Father, who art in heaven" reminding us that God is our heavenly parent, who loves and nurtures us throughout our lives. Even if we did not have a good earthly father or mother, God is our Heavenly Parent, and as we learn to trust God, God lets us know what a loving parent is supposed to be.

God has been called the "Hound of Heaven," who forever "tracks us" and does not give up until we are found. God uses all sorts and conditions of people in our lives to draw us closer. Remembering how God used Cyrus, the King of Persia, who did not know the living God at the time, we are reminded that the Hound of Heaven might use anyone or anything to get our attention.

If you don't like the thought of being hounded by God, another image is of the Good Shepherd, who leaves the ninety-nine sheep in the fold to search for one sheep, and who does not quit searching until that one sheep is brought back safe to the fold. Beloved, that one sheep is you. That one sheep is me. That one sheep may well be every person who ever lived. Wouldn't that be just like the Hound of Heaven or the Good Shepherd not to quit, not to rest, until all are safe in the fold?

You may have heard this before, but it's worth remembering: the acronym for the word grace is "God's riches at Christ's expense." It reminds us that the Incarnation is not only about God coming in the flesh so that we could see first-hand who God is, but it is also about Jesus offering Himself for the sins of the world. Through the mystery of the crucifixion and resurrection, Jesus defeated death and sin and hell and opened the way to the Father for all people. In Holy Scripture we read, "If any sin, we have an Advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous; and he is the perfect offering for our sins, and not for ours only, but for the sins of the whole world" (1 John 2:1-2). Therefore the good news of the Gospel is that Jesus is the universal Savior, the Savior of the whole world. Thanks be to God!

People of Grace, let's live into our name during this new year. Let's be who we are and proclaim the grace or gift of God's salvation to all and for all.

Blessings and Peace

Parish News

Centering Prayer meets on Wednesdays at 5:30 p.m. in Fr. Gary's office. All are welcome.

Chalichists are needed for the 11:15 service. If you would like to serve in this ministry, please contact Sally Coburn at 645-5369. Training is available.

Memorials and thanksgivings for Christmas greens and flower donations will be published in the February TEAM.

Men of the Church will meet on Tuesday, January 14, at 6:00 p.m. in the parish hall. Oscar Starnes, Arnold Clark, and Jack Frue will be our hosts and cooks. All are welcome. Please join us. The cost is $10.00. Please sign up on the blue sheet on the kiosk.

The Monday Morning Bible Study, led by Fr. Bob Reese, meets from 10:30-11:30 a.m. in the parish hall. Each week, the study is about the Gospel reading for the coming Sunday. Please join us. All are welcome.

Our Monday Soup Suppers continue. Please join us. The meal is served from 4:45-5:45 p.m. and is free of charge. Expenses are defrayed by a Diocesan grant and by a partnership with Manna Food Bank. All are welcome to come enjoy good food and fellowship with parishioners and others.

The Monday Soup Suppers program needs volunteers. We need soup cooks, bread and fruit providers, dessert providers, and clean-up helpers for our soup ministry. You will be reimbursed for your expenses. Please email Bill Crownover at billcrownover@bellsouth.net or call him at 298-0570 or 713-8504 to sign up for specific dates and tasks.

The Order of St. Luke will meet on Thursday, January 9, from 6:30-8:30 p.m. in the parish hall. All are welcome. One does not have to be an OSL member to attend. We will not meet if Asheville City Schools are closed that day or if they close early because of inclement weather. We'll complete our program series that has focused on inner healing. We'll view a DVD of Norma Dearing when she was Prayer Ministry Coordinator at Christian Healing Ministries, speaking about Praying for Healing from Conception to Birth. It is a very important topic. When people are stuck as they seek to move into greater freedom, they may have wounds from the prenatal time of life. After the DVD, Ann Robinson will lead us in an experience of healing prayer for any wounds that we may have received from conception to birth.

Purls of Grace meet on the first and third Thursdays of each month at 6:30 p.m. in the library. If you have questions, would like to learn to knit prayer shawls, and/or would like to deliver shawls, contact Jeanne Robertson at jerobertson38@me.com.

Bishop's Visitation

Bishop Taylor will be with us for all three services on January 19. We will have Confirmation and Reaffirmation at the 11:15 worship service on that day. We have four Candidates for Confirmation. If you would like to reaffirm your faith on that day and have the Bishop pray for you, contact Fr. Gary at 254-1086, ext. 14.

All three adult Sunday school classes will in the Parish Hall on that day with Bishop Taylor. I will invite him to speak to us on the topic of his choice. I am sure that he will be able to answer any questions that we might have for him as well.

There is much that one could say about our Bishop. He is thoughtful and prayerful. He loves the Lord and His Church. Being a former college professor and having a Ph.D. in English with a concentration in poetry, Porter is, in my opinion, one of the best preachers in the Episcopal Church. In the Episcopal Church, the bishop oversees the ministry of the Diocese, which is, in our case, the Diocese of Western North Carolina. Porter happens to be a native of Asheville, and he grew up here in North Asheville. He is a blessing, and you won't want to miss his visit on January 19.

Fr. Gary

Three Options for Adult Sunday School

Three excellent adult Sunday school classes are being offered in January:

The Bible Study Class in the Edwards Library will continue a study of Isaiah. Dr. Bill Dismukes is the facilitator and all are welcome. Joining the ongoing course is not a problem.

The Pretty Good Coffee and Conversation Class in the parish hall will continue a study of Brian McLaren's book, Why Did Jesus, Moses, the Buddha, and Mohammed Cross the Road? The look at how we as Christians interact with people of other faiths is also ongoing and all are welcome to join in. Monty Wooten and Lyn Burkett are the facilitators.

The Downstairs Class in the conference room will begin a study of Conscious Discipline® on January 5. Conscious Discipline® is built on the idea of developing discipline within children rather than applying discipline to them. The Conscious Discipline® process applies equally to parents, grandparents, childcare-givers, educators and patient caregivers. See the full article in the December Grace Team. Jarod and Molly Coffey are the facilitators and all are welcome.

Grace Outreach Notes

Sue Thompkins

The Grace Outreach Committee made the following donations in 2013:

$3000 to Asheville Buncombe Community Christian Ministries
$1200 to Room in the Inn
$1000 to Helpmate
$1000 to Consider Haiti
$800 to MANNA Food Bank
$750 to Episcopal Relief and Development for tornado relief in the US in May
$1000 to Episcopal Relief and Development for typhoon relief in the Philippines
$1500 to Habitat for Humanity

In addition we continue to provide food for the Backpacker program on an ongoing basis. Thank you to all who have given generously of their resources to make these gifts and more possible over the past year.

Room in the Inn. The Grace Outreach Committee would like to thank Terri Frue for her many years of overseeing our participation in the Room in the Inn program. Terri, who has selflessly given of her time to the program, will step down as of this month. The Outreach Committee has decided that we will continue to provide monetary support for the Room in the Inn program, but that we will no longer serve as hosts or provide meals or volunteers. THANK YOU, TERRI!

Planned Giving & Endowment

Fr. Alex Comfort

Recently all members of the congregation received an email from the national Episcopal Church Foundation about a possibly helpful financial arrangement called a Charitable Gift Annuity (CGA). We can give you more details; the CGA is perfect for people who need more income now! It gives you five to seven percent annual income, depending on your age, for the rest of your life. If you use a gift of appreciated stock, you will not have to pay the capital gains tax you would if you liquidated the stock. You also get a generous income-tax deduction.

So, if you have some stock that is producing less than one percent income, it might work for you to give it to Grace Church so that we can give you better income. Normally, people do that with $5,000-$200,000 worth of stock. It is a gift that helps both you and Grace Church! Feel free to call me directly at 691-6135 for more details or to contact Fr. Gary or Mike Bohan.

Healing Prayer Corner

Jeane Robertson

Blessings to all of you for 2014. This is the first time that I have written that date. This is the time of year when I reflect on the many blessings that our wonderful Lord has bestowed on me in the past year and on my hopes and dreams for the coming year. One of the things that I am most thankful for is that I belong to a church that gives me many opportunities for worship and prayer. First and foremost, we have three completely different services on Sundays, giving us choices to fit every need. Every Monday night, we have a free soup supper and a Taizé service; every Tuesday night, a Healing Service with soaking prayer; every Wednesday noon, a Healing Service with healing prayers by Fr. Gary; and every Wednesday evening, a time of Centering Prayer. Every Sunday, we have Sunday School for both children and adults, and every Monday morning, a study of the Gospel reading for the following Sunday. Those are a few of the many opportunities that I participate in, but there is much more, so check the church calendar for the next event that will fit your individual needs. May each and every one of you have a year that is blessed and touched by the healing power of our Lord Jesus Christ.

A Slow November

Total November contributions of $33,800 were $1,440 under budget primarily due to a shortfall in pledged income. When combined with Building and all Other Income, November book income was $2,602.44 over budget. Income from all sources at the end of November totaled $406,941 falling $2,464 short of the targeted $409,405.

Total November expenses of $39,054 were $1,835 over budget due to Mission & Outreach and Operations costs. Even though year-to-date expenses of $394,167 were $15,237 under budget, there are $37,219 budgeted expenses left to be paid in December.

As we quickly approach the end of 2013, we are prayerful that contributions will be in line to cover the remaining budgeted needs of the church.
