THE WORD OF GOD

THE NEW TESTAMENT READING: Philippians 1:21-30

To me, living is Christ and dying is gain. If I am to live in the flesh, that means fruitful labor for me; and I do not know which I prefer. I am hard pressed between the two: my desire is to depart and be with Christ, for that is far better; but to remain in the flesh is more necessary for you. Since I am convinced of this, I know that I will remain and continue with all of you for your progress and joy in faith, so that I may share abundantly in your boasting in Christ Jesus when I come to you again.

Only, live your life in a manner worthy of the gospel of Christ, so that, whether I come and see you or am absent and hear about you, I will know that you are standing firm in one spirit, striving side by side with one mind for the faith of the gospel, and are in no way intimidated by your opponents. For them this is evidence of their destruction, but of your salvation. And this is God's doing. For he has graciously granted you the privilege not only of believing in Christ, but of suffering for him as well-- since you are having the same struggle that you saw I had and now hear that I still have.

Reader The word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

THE GOSPEL: Matthew 20:1-16

Jesus said, "The kingdom of heaven is like a landowner who went out early in the morning to hire laborers for his vineyard. After agreeing with the laborers for the usual daily wage, he sent them into his vineyard. When he went out about nine o'clock, he saw others standing idle in the marketplace; and he said to them, 'You also go into the vineyard, and I will pay you whatever is right.' So they went. When he went out again about noon and about three o'clock, he did the same. And about five o'clock he went out and found others standing around; and he said to them, 'Why are you standing here idle all day?' They said to him, 'Because no one has hired us.' He said to them, 'You also go into the vineyard.' When evening came, the owner of the vineyard said to his manager, 'Call the laborers and give them their pay, beginning with the last and then going to the first.' When those hired about five o'clock came, each of them received the usual daily wage. Now when the first came, they thought they would receive more; but each of them also received the usual daily wage. And when they received it, they grumbled against the landowner, saying, 'These last worked only one hour, and you have made them equal to us who have borne the burden of the day and the scorching heat.' But he replied to one of them, 'Friend, I am doing you no wrong; did you not agree with me for the usual daily wage? Take what belongs to you and go; I choose to give to this last the same as I give to you. Am I not allowed to do what I choose with what belongs to me? Or are you envious because I am generous?' So the last will be first, and the first will be last."

Celebrant The Gospel of the Lord.
People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

THE HOMILY

Rev. Milly

(Quiet Time for Reflection)

THE NICENE CREED (standing)

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father.
Through him all things were made.

For us and for our salvation
he came down from heaven:
by the power of the Holy Spirit
he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary,
and was made man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.

On the third day he rose again
in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son.

With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.

He has spoken through the Prophets.

We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.

We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.

We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

The response to "Lord, in your mercy" is "Hear our prayer."

PRAYER OF CONFESSION & ABSOLUTION

Celebrant Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor

All Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your Name. Amen.

Celebrant Almighty God, have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life. Amen

THE PEACE

Celebrant The peace of the Lord be always with you.

People And also with you.

The Ministers and People greet one another in the name of the Lord.

THE LORD'S PRAYER (Traditional Version)

Celebrant And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

All Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come, thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.

And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

THE BREAKING OF THE BREAD

FRACTION ANTHEM: (recited)

Celebrant Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us;

INVITATION TO COMMUNION

POST COMMUNION PRAYER (standing)

Celebrant Let us pray.

All Lord of the Feast,
we thank you for gathering us as your people.
We call to remembrance the many times
we have been fed at your table
and we lament our distance now.
Be present Lord Jesus
as you were present with your disciples,
be known to us in the breaking of the bread,
and may your Holy Spirit sustain us
and all your Church
until we can gather together again.
We ask this for the sake of your love. Amen.

THE BLESSING

Friends, Life is short, and we don't have much time to gladden the hearts of those who walk the way with us.

So, be swift to love and make haste to show mercy and may the blessing of God, Father, Son and Holy Spirit be with us and remain with us forever.

Annually, the Pumpkin Patch is Consider Haiti's biggest fundraiser. A year ago, we netted $10,000 that supported programs in community health, sustainable nutrition, clean water and medical care. Consider Haiti's single most urgent goal is promoting the health and welfare of Haitian children. This year, they will impact the lives of more than 2,000 children and their families. Through the Pumpkin Patch, Grace Church has an opportunity to raise both funds and awareness for the work Consider Haiti is doing, even in the midst of a pandemic. We are working to make participating as safe and risk-free as possible for you. And we thank you in advance for your on-going support.

CHECK IT OUT!

WE HAVE A REFRESHED LOOK IN THE URBAN MEMORIAL GARDEN

As you may know, the memorial garden was established in 1955 by Leigh Roy Urban, priest, and Elizabeth Luchars Urban of this parish. Its purpose is to provide a place for burial of ashes. It is also a place for rest, meditation, and prayer.

This year, the ongoing maintenance of the garden included rebuilding the labyrinth. We are very grateful to parishioner Don Hawkins who initiated and led the project of our garden's renewal. We were also gifted by Bruce Goforth, retired president of Goforth Builders, with the use of equipment and manpower to move tons of gravel needed to form a new base for the labyrinth. Bruce was also instrumental in arranging a $500 cash gift from Material Sales Company (locally Grove Stone and Sand Company of Black Mountain, which provided the material). We feel blessed by Bruce's belief in and practice of "Giving Back" in honor of God's gifts in his life.

Don has been working on this project since August, with help from many people, including his friend Janice. They have cleaned up the water feature, laid down new mulch on both sides of the fountain where ashes are buried, and reworked the labyrinth. This past Wednesday, Reverend Milly arranged for some help from local youth, who came by to work with Don to lay down the stones creating new paths in the labyrinth. Please join us in thanking all those who helped, especially Don Hawkins for taking on the project of fulfilling what he considers an important obligation by Grace, to all of our loved ones whose ashes are interred in the Urban Memorial Garden.

Stewardship
a way of life

PLEDGE YOUR BEST TO GRACE

Let's do something special with our time, talent and treasure this year, especially as we live and worship in these extraordinary days.

As we begin our Stewardship Campaign, please consider your ability to pledge and also to increasing your pledge by even a small amount. Pledges are the only way we know what we have to budget for our work of being the church.

Donations are wonderful, but by pledging you enable us to be good stewards of all the Lord has given us and especially our work together at Grace and in the Asheville community.

We have two ways now of pledging online, both of which start with the new pledge card on our website (<https://www.graceavl.com/parish-life/pastoral-care/giving/pledge-commitment/>):

- You can fill in the new 2021 pledge card on our website and return the completed pledge card electronically. This is a printable form that you can keep for your records.
- Also, you can download, print, and complete the new online pledge card and mail it to Grace.

And if you would prefer a printed pledge card, you can meet Rev. Milly and get your pledge card from her as you drive through the church parking on Monday, Sept. 28 from 1:00-3:00 pm!

Sunday, October 25 will be our in-gathering date for celebrating the pledges offered by the people of Grace.

The vestry of Grace invites you to prayerfully consider your pledge to Grace for 2021. If you would like to discuss your pledge with a vestry member, please email me at dougkmcclellan@gmail.com. I'll be happy to talk with you or connect you with another vestry member.

Doug McClellan
Senior Warden

To make your 2021 pledge, please go to <https://tinyurl.com/GracePledge> .

Please print this so you can use it regularly in prayer.

WE PRAY THAT WE WILL MAKE STEWARDSHIP A WAY OF LIFE

Eternal God, we pray that we will make stewardship a way of Life. We acknowledge you as the source of all we have and all we are.

Help us to place you, our loving Creator, first in our lives by becoming more prayerful, more focused on loving and caring for our families and our neighbors in need, and by becoming less preoccupied with material things.

Help us to hear your call to be good stewards, caretakers, and managers of all your gifts by sharing them for your purposes.

Help us make your priorities our priorities and to put our faith into action. Help us plan to "give back" the talents, treasures and time with which we have been blessed.

Help us plan to serve our church, our community, and our world with your gifts. May we serve you and pray with a joyful spirit of mind and heart.

Amen.

PRAYING TOGETHER: Rev. Milly will be holding open spiritual direction sessions for individuals or couples weekly Wednesdays 1-3 pm in the sanctuary. This is a time to receive pastoral care and to let yourself rest in the comfort of the sacred sanctuary space. Masks and social distancing are required. Please email Rev. Milly to schedule your time with her. Rev.Milly4Grace@gmail.com

WOMEN WALKING THE WAY: Milly is going on retreat for two days and so there will not be a "Women Walking the Way" Thursday, September 24th. But she will be back the next week on Thursday at 8:00 a.m. where you can meet at the Bird Sanctuary parking lot.
