The Psalm: 116

I love the Lord, who has heard / my voice,
And listened to my / supplication,
For the Lord has given / ear to me
Whenever I called / upon him.

The anguish of the grave came / upon me;
I came to / grief and sorrow.
Then I called upon the name / of the Lord:
“O Lord, I pray you, / save my life.”

How shall I repay / the Lord
For all the good God has / done for me?
I will lift up the cup / of salvation
And call upon the name / of the Lord.

I will fulfill my vows to / the Lord
In the presence of / all God's people.
Precious in your / sight, O Lord,
Is the death / of your servants.

O Lord, I am / your servant;
The child / of your handmaid;
I will offer you the sacrifice / of thanksgiving
And call upon the name / of the Lord.

I will fulfill my vows to / the Lord
In the presence / of his people,
In the courts of / the Lord's house,
In the midst of you, O Jerusalem, / Hallelujah!

The Great Thanksgiving: Eucharistic Prayer 3

(from Enriching Our Worship)

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Lift up your hearts.

People We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People It is right to give our thanks and praise.

Celebrant

All thanks and praise are yours at all times and in all places, our true and loving God; through Jesus Christ, your eternal Word, the Wisdom from on high by whom you created all things. You laid the foundations of the world and enclosed the sea when it burst out from the womb; You brought forth all creatures of the earth and gave breath to humankind. Wondrous are you, Holy One of Blessing, all you create is a sign of hope for our journey; And so as the morning stars sing your praises we join the heavenly beings and all creation as we shout with joy:

Sanctus

earth are full — of your glo-ry: Ho - san-na in the high - est. Bless-ed is He who — comes in the name of the Lord. Ho - san - na in the high — est.

The Celebrant continues

Glory and honor are yours, Creator of all, your Word has never been silent; you called a people to yourself, as a light to the nations, you delivered them from bondage and led them to a land of promise. Of your grace, you gave Jesus to be human, to share our life, to proclaim the coming of your holy reign and give himself for us, a fragrant offering. Through Jesus Christ our Redeemer, you have freed us from sin, brought us into your life, reconciled us to you, and restored us to the glory you intend for us.

We thank you that on the night before he died for us Jesus took bread, and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, gave it to his friends and said: "Take, eat, this is my Body, broken for you. Do this for the remembrance of me." After supper Jesus took the cup of wine, said the blessing, gave it to his friends and said: "Drink this, all of you: this cup is the new Covenant in my Blood, poured out for you and for all for the forgiveness of sin. Do this for the remembrance of me."

And so, remembering all that was done for us: the cross, the tomb, the resurrection and ascension, longing for Christ's coming in glory, and presenting to you these gifts your earth has formed and human hands have made, we acclaim you, O Christ:

Celebrant and People

Dying, you destroyed our death. Rising, you restored our life. Christ Jesus, come in glory!

The Celebrant continues

Send your Holy Spirit upon us and upon these gifts of bread and wine that they may be to us the Body and Blood of your Christ. Grant that we, burning with your Spirit's power, may be a people of hope, justice and love. Giver of Life, draw us together in the Body of Christ, and in the fullness of time gather us with all your people into the joy of our true eternal home. Through Christ and with Christ and in Christ, by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, we worship you our God and Creator in voices of unending praise.

Celebrant and People

Blessed are you now and for ever. AMEN.
