The Psalm: 68:1-10, 33-36

May God arise and the enemy be put / to flight;
May those who hate / the Lord flee!
May they vanish like smoke when / the wind blows;
As wax melts near the fire, so may the / wicked parish!

But the righteous rejoice at the coming of / the Lord;
They dance for joy, singing praises to the / name of God!
They prepare a way for the one who rides up-on the cloud,
They exult in the name / of the Lord!

God, who lives in the ho-ly temple,
Cares for orphans and pro-tects the widows,
Provides the lonely with a home, sets / prisoners free;
But the rebels live in the / scorching desert.

O God, when you went forth before / your people,
When you marched a-cross the desert,
The earth quaked and the heavens / poured down rain
At your coming, God of Israel, / Sinai's God

You refreshed with rain your / own land;
When your heritage was faint, you / gave it strength;
Your people found a home / in that land,
Which your goodness provided / for the poor.

All you nations, sing praise / to God,
To the one who rides in the / ancient heavens.
God speaks in / mighty thunder.
Come, confess the power / of our God.

The glory of God is o-ver Israel,
the might of God is / in the skies.
Awesome is God in the / holy place!
The God of Israel gives power of strength / to the people.

The Prayers of the People

Reader In the Glory of the Paschal light, we pray to God.

Reader God, awake those who sleep, raise us from death.

People Christ will give us life!

Reader God, you walked with the Disciples on the road to Emmaus, in this season of resurrection, give the Church the grace to recognize you anew, that we might serve you with courage and grace.

People In the new Easter light we proclaim your redeeming work.

Reader You redeemed Peter at breakfast by the fire. Bring new hope to your world, O God, that all might know the goodness of your Love.

People Make us instruments of your peace.

Reader Lead us from the empty tomb to proclaim your grace in this nation, and inspire our leaders toward peace and cooperation.

People In Easter we learn to honor one another and serve the common good.

The Great Thanksgiving: Eucharistic Prayer 3

(from Enriching Our Worship)

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Lift up your hearts.

People We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People It is right to give our thanks and praise.

Celebrant

All thanks and praise are yours at all times and in all places, our true and loving God; through Jesus Christ, your eternal Word, the Wisdom from on high by whom you created all things. You laid the foundations of the world and enclosed the sea when it burst out from the womb; You brought forth all creatures of the earth and gave breath to humankind. Wondrous are you, Holy One of Blessing, all you create is a sign of hope for our journey; And so as the morning stars sing your praises we join the heavenly beings and all creation as we shout with joy:

comes in the name of the Lord. Ho - san - na in the high — est.

The Celebrant continues

Glory and honor are yours, Creator of all, your Word has never been silent; you called a people to yourself, as a light to the nations, you delivered them from bondage and led them to a land of promise. Of your grace, you gave Jesus to be human, to share our life, to proclaim the coming of your holy reign and give himself for us, a fragrant offering. Through Jesus Christ our Redeemer, you have freed us from sin, brought us into your life, reconciled us to you, and restored us to the glory you intend for us.

We thank you that on the night before he died for us Jesus took bread, and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, gave it to his friends and said: "Take, eat, this is my Body, broken for you. Do this for the remembrance of me." After supper Jesus took the cup of wine, said the blessing, gave it to his friends and said: "Drink this, all of you: this cup is the new Covenant in my Blood, poured out for you and for all for the forgiveness of sin. Do this for the remembrance of me."

And so, remembering all that was done for us: the cross, the tomb, the resurrection and ascension, longing for Christ's coming in glory, and presenting to you these gifts your earth has formed and human hands have made, we acclaim you, O Christ:

Celebrant and People

Dying, you destroyed our death. Rising, you restored our life. Christ Jesus, come in glory!

The Celebrant continues

Send your Holy Spirit upon us and upon these gifts of bread and wine that they may be to us the Body and Blood of your Christ. Grant that we, burning with your Spirit's power, may be a people of hope, justice and love. Giver of Life, draw us together in the Body of Christ, and in the fullness of time gather us with all your people into the joy of our true eternal home. Through Christ and with Christ and in Christ, by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, we worship you our God and Creator in voices of unending praise.

Celebrant and People

Blessed are you now and for ever. AMEN.
